Business . . . Preparation for future employment

Typing is one of the basic skills which all future secretaries must master.

The Business Curriculum at John Adams is designed to effectively prepare each student for future employment. By using the latest teaching technique and up-to-date office equipment, a pupil is able to fulfill his potential and attain worthwile employment.

Under the direction of Miss Annajane Puterbaugh, the Business Department offers numerous courses by which a student may succeed in the business world. Some of the courses offered are Personal Typing, Notehand, Office Training, Bookkeeping, and Shorthand.

Much importance today is placed on our knowledge of the English language. The ability to communicate our ideas through writing and speaking has become even more necessary as our world progresses towards the goal of peace for mankind.

In the English Department at John Adams each student has the opportunity to improve himself through development in such areas as vocabulary, grammar, composition, and class discussion. The sixteen English teachers, under the direction of department head Mrs. Hazel McClure, have sought to instill a knowledge and appreciation of the skills of the English language and the beauty of literature in every student so that his knowledge can lead him to the proficiency in our language necessary to life today.

This year many seniors are receiving the benefits of the new team teaching program which will be further initiated to reach more students next year. In team teaching two or three teachers combine classes and share teaching responsibilities so that each may instruct in his own speciality and so the students can have the benefit of varied instruction and more individual attention. This new system has already proved successful and will benefit more students as it is more widely instituted in the coming years.

Physical Education

Trampoline practice is one part of a girl's physical education program.

Push ups, perseverance, and perspiration—fitness, failure, and fatigue—all are a part of the physical education program which keeps us fit. The volleyball, basketball, trampoline, wrestling, gymnastics, baseball, and track events provide welcome relief from the strain of schoolwork while the callisthenics build muscle tone and strength.

The new swimming facilities and gymnasium will assure every student's opportunity to take physical education at least twice a week.

The instructors take pride in the determination and physical achievement of all the students.

The language lab offers the student the chance to use his acquired skills.

Mrs. Gadomski quizzes her second year Latin students as she dictates vocabulary. Hopefully they answer by writing the correct meaning for the word!

Language . . . Appreciation of Foreign Cultures

Under the direction of Mrs. Gwendolyn Gadomski, the Foreign Language Department offers students at John Adams four years of study in French, German, Latin, or Spanish. Through a study of foreign languages and the countries in which they are spoken, students gain an appreciation of the varied and interesting cultures of the world.

Although each of the languages are taught in a slightly different manner, they all stress pronunciation, grammar, and usage. First and second year students gain a knowledge of their language through stories and conversations that utilize the basic grammar and idioms of the language which they study. Advanced students have the opportunity to study world masters in the text of their native tongue such as Molière in French and Vergil in Latin.

This year the addition of two modern language laboratories have increased each student's potential for learning in the languages. Through tapes appropriate to the studies of each specific class, the students have the opportunity to further acquaint themselves with their language. The possibility of participating in lab work once a week has provided much interest for the students and further aid for the faculty in teaching language arts.

Although a foreign language is not required at John Adams, the language department has been consistently popular for both vocational and college preparatory students because it offers an interesting course of study in a variety of languages.

Home Economics . . . Learning Domestic Skills

Home Economics offers food and clothing for all grade levels and family living for seniors. Both boys and girls are welcome in the department.

The foods course stresses the reasons why foods act and react as they do and the "why" of basic nutrition. Of course there are lab periods to try out newly learned ideas.

In clothing courses the girls learn how to make the things that high school students like to wear. School clothes, sportswear, and formals are all the possibilities if wardrobe planning shows a need for them. In advanced clothing the girls are encouraged to use exciting new textiles such as bonded fabrics, stretch fabrics, and knits.

Family living gives senior boys and girls a new understanding of their roles in the family. During the year they learn about dating, marriage, the beginning family, and how it changes with the growth of a new generation. Successful home management also gets its share of attention.

It is interesting to note that people with a college degree in Home Economics have more job opportunities open to them than people with a degree in any other field.

Industrial Arts . . . Utilizing Machines

Mr. Bonham explains the use of a machine.

Today as our society becomes more mechanized, machines have come to play an even greater part in the American way of life. In the Industrial Arts department, boys learn the basic skills which are necessary to a good understanding of mechanics and all types of shop work.

This is the first year that an Auto Mechanics course has been taught, but it is already popular with boys who intend to go into automotives as well as the boys who are interested in amateur mechanics as a hobby.

All of the shops are fully equipped with the latest machinery, and with these modern machines and their own efforts, the students can produce useful items which are the products of careful instruction and their own skills.

Science . . .

The Science Department of John Adams includes Health, Biology, Chemistry, and Physics.

Health is a required subject which every student must take before graduating. In health a student learns basic biology and hygenic principals. If a student is interested in biology, two years of biology are offered him. In advanced biology, such facets as mammalogy, bacteriology, and fresh water organisims are included.

Physical chemistry is also offered to juniors and seniors. By working in the labs the student gains additional knowledge to supplement class room training.

Physics, a slightly different type of course, is offered to those students who have completed chemistry and who wish to gain further knowledge in the scientific field.

Mr. Litweiler demonstrates dissection procedure to his second year Biology students.

Expression through Art and

Creativity is the key word in art and music. In both fields of study a student is able to achieve expression either by design or sound.

The Art Department devotes much time in designing such things as posters and programs for the school. Many students receive honors for their talent.

The Glee Club, Band, and Orchestra contribute much to school activities. Under the direction of Mr. Hoover and Mr. Hodgen, the glee clubs sing at various events both in and out of school. One of the high points during the year is the Candlelight Vespers Service. The Band and Orchestra also participate in many events, and during the football and basketball season, the Band contributes music for the games.

Social Studies . . .

Mr. Goldsberry conducts an American Government class while seniors diligently (?) take notes.

In today's society an understanding and interest in history and current events is extremely important. Through the Social Studies Department students gain an awareness of the world around them and their responsibility as citizens.

Under Department Head Alonzo Goldsberry World and U.S. History teachers instill an appreciation of the past in their students so they can relate this knowledge to their lives. Senior Government and Freshmen Social Studies classes deal with current events and dealwith current events and the structure of our government.

An understanding of Social Studies helps each student to better realize and assume his responsibilities in our modern society.

Mathematics . . . Basic

Basic skills and a thorough knowledge of mathematical fundamentals are the requirements for a good math student.

High school math and first year algebra are offered to incoming freshmen. During the year a basic understanding is acquired for a higher level of mathematics.

Students who major in math usually use these skills to complete four years of algebra, geometry, trigonometry or solid geometry and college algebra or calculus.

The Math Department, headed by Mr. Weir, strives to guide students in their endeavors in the field. Many Adam's students gain honors in the field of mathematics.

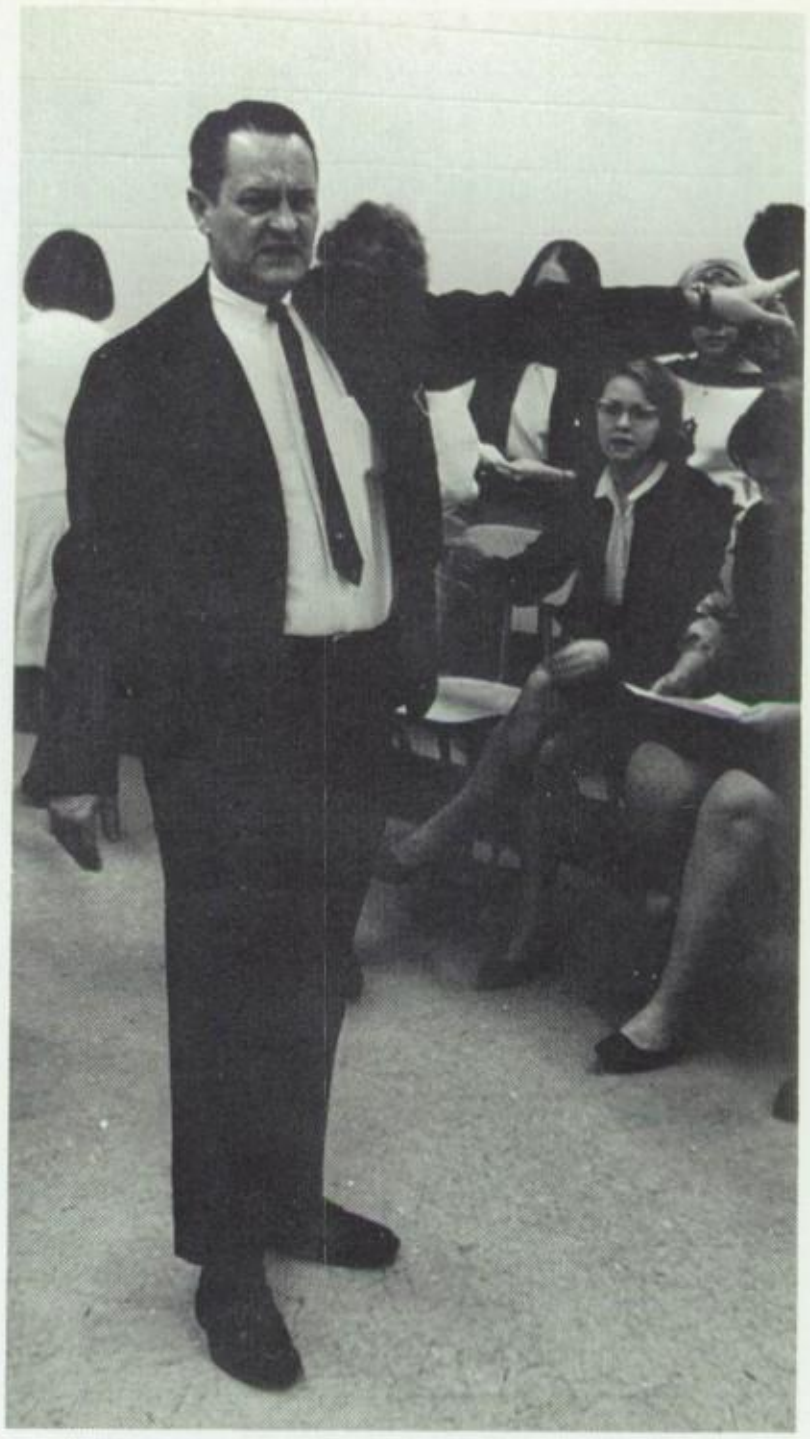
The John Adams vocal department, under the direction of Robert Hoover and R. L. Hodgson, experienced a most rewarding year. The Senior Glee Club was kept busy in the Fall with the preparation for the Back-to-School Assembly, the North Central Chorus, and entertainment for a P.T.A. meeting. However, the Christmas Vespers, the Glee Club's gift to the community, was the most outstanding event on the Glee Club calendar. This year the excitement surrounding the Vespers was increased since a recording was made of the inspirational and rewarding program.

With the commencement of a new year, the Glee Clubs were reorganized into the Concert Choir, the Mixed Chorus, the Girls Chorus, and the Cadet Choir. Under this new organization, the Glee Clubs sang for the Hi-Y Assembly, the Spring Assembly, and participated in the all-city musical, Around the World in 80 Days. The year was ended with Baccalaureate and Commencement Exercises.



"I am too a nice guy," smiles Mr. Hoover.

Many activities throughout the year have kept the John Adams Dance, Varsity, and Concert bands very busy. Our bands have participated in an exhausting schedule of marching, concerts, and local public appearances. In addition to the regular functions the bands undertook, many members won honors in the annual local, district, and state solo ensemble contests.

During the football and basketball seasons, halftimes were enriched by the entertainment of the bands. None of the many performances of any one of the three bands could have been achieved, however, without the excellent supervision and direction of Mr. Schafer and Mr. Withrow.

The purpose of this organization is to further interest in scholarship, encourage leadership and service, and promote the development of character in the students of John Adams. The main project of the N.H.S. is the annual selling of school sweatshirts. It also sponsors a breakfast for those students achieving the outstanding record of straight A's.

Eligibility for the lifelong Thespian membership requires that students must have made outstanding contributions to the plays presented by the school in either the acting or production aspect of dramatics. Thespian activities this year included aid in the production of the fall play, and spring musical, an annual initiation, and the undertaking of writing and producing a movie.

Student Council

The John Adams Student Council is perhaps the busiest and most important organization at Adams. Their calendar of activities begins with the annual Show-Ya-Round. On this occasion, freshmen are introduced to their new school by informed upperclassmen. The council also welcomes back the entire student body and faculty with the Back-To-School Assembly. This year the new teachers were introduced, and Don Schultz, past Council president, addressed the student body. During the Christmas season, the Council sponsored a Christmas party for the children of migrant workers. The Council also sponsored a Scweek Week this year to honor both the faculty and students of Adams High School. The Council's final project is the annual "Little 500" bicycle race. Among the events of the afternoon is a competitive race between the homerooms, and the crowning of the "Little 500" queen.

Regular meetings of the Student Council are held each Thursday morning before school. Business may range from the formation of an anti-theft campaign to the city High School Recreation Board. This year's Council president is Reid Lichtenfels. The sponsorship of the club is shared jointly by Mr. Fretz and Mr. Shively.

A.F.S. Committee

The American Field Service is a committee sponsored by Student Council. This group is responsible for the annual "Share Their Fare" drive which finances the foreign exchange students program at Adams. The AFS committee seeks to promote closer relations and friendship between the exchange students and the student body. Also sponsored by AFS is the AFS Assembly, in which the students tell of their experiences in foreign lands, and foreign students give their impressions of America.

The AFS also had a city-wide potluck for all exchange students in South Bend. This year it was attended by Anne Notely, our exchange student from New Zealand, and Peggy Grant, her American sister. The potluck provides a time for the students to become personally acquainted with each other and American customs.

Gerri Katz and Dayle Berke were this year's chairmen for the "Share Their Fare" drive, which went over the expected goal of $1,000 with a total of $1,863.

Eagle Ethics

Each year, under the direction of Mr. John Loughlin, the Eagle Ethics Committee strives to achieve a mature conduct through its code and activities. Stressed in the committee are the character and ethical traits found in the Eagle Ethics code. The code consists of eleven concepts which are: Ambition, Courage, Faith, Honesty, Industry, Modesty, Patience, Perseverance, Respect, Self-Control, and Sincerity. A presentation of the Ethics code to freshmen, the locker clean-up, Ethics week, and the Eagle Ethics assembly are annual projects of the organization.

Library Club

The Library Club of John Adams renders invaluable services to the student body and faculty. Its members, under the guidance of Miss Mary Earl, assist students and teachers who wish to check out books of reference material. They also catalogue and repair library books. Other functions include filing cards and processing new books, as well as aiding students unfamiliar with the library. The club meets on the first and third Monday of every month. These library assistants keep the library in top notch condition.

Literature Club

To understand, to enjoy, and to appreciate the great literature of the world is the reason for the formation of the John Adams Literature Club. Having read an assigned book, the club members gather after school, under the leadership of Mr. Thomas Bull, to discuss different aspects of the book. By delving into the theme, characters, concepts and problems presented in the novel, the members gain not only an insight into the novel, but also into the problems and situations of their own lives.

Drama Club

In the process of reaching its goal of increasing student interest, knowledge, and participation in the dramatic arts, the Drama Club enjoyed a profitable and rewarding year.

The major project of the year was the production of the annual fall play in the Little Theatre. This year's production was "The Curious Savage," a tender comedy. Although all members of the Drama Club could not act in the play, all were able to participate in some phase of the production.

Other activities included the Play Festival in February. At this time, groups of active members present short play cuttings. The Drama Club also made plans this year to revive a trip to Chicago to see a popular stage play. Since the Drama Club was not able to present their own Spring Play, they contributed time and effort for the production of the All-City Musical, "Around the World in Eighty Days."

ALBUM Homeroom Representatives

It is the duty of the ALBUM Homeroom Representatives to promote the sale of ALBUMS in their respective homerooms. This year's representatives were under the guidance of Dick Jeter, Circulation Manager for the ALBUM Staff. The representatives were honored at a coke party given by Mr. Carrol and the ALBUM Staff for their excellent work. The representatives were able to exceed their goal this year by selling a record number of ALBUMS to 80% or 1590 of the student body of Adams. Since the success of the ALBUM depends largely on the Homeroom Representatives, their job is very important and they should be congratulated for their fine work.

The Junior Red Cross Council, one of the outstanding service organizations at Adams, works with the St. Joseph Red Cross Chapter on many of their projects that serve the area. These girls greatly ease the job of Mrs. Danner, the secretary, and Mrs. Kindt. The office girls each give up a study hall as well as time before and after school to offer their services. A few of their services include answering the telephone, taking messages, and typing.

The members of this year's club anxiously await the answer to a proposal for a girls' swimming team for next year.

Rifle Club

The Rifle Club has completed a second successful year at Adams. Even though Rifle Club is a new club here, a great interest was shown in the sport. Members learn good marksmenship and the exercising of weapon safety at their regular weekly practices at the YMCA. With the help of Mr. Peter Holmgren, sponsor, the Rifle Club has established a constitution and had a regular schedule of activities. The group operates under the National Rifle Association rules with Bill D'alelio serving as president.

The John Adams Booster Club is certainly an organization the entire student body can take pride in. This year the Booster Club's membership totals over three hundred which makes it the largest and most popular organization in John Adams. The primary objective of the club is to instill a sense of pride and enthusiasm in the Adams student body for the accomplishments which all of the Adams athletic teams achieve during the year.

To instill this sense of pride and enthusiasm, the Booster Club sponsors many and varied projects. During the football season, a committee decorates goal posts at school field before every home game. Also during football season, the Booster Club sponsors the traditional Adams-Central bonfire, at which time the queen's courts from the respective schools are introduced, followed by a blazing bonfire and pep rally. The Booster Club also takes charge of the halftime of the Adams-Central football game when the football queens are announced. Other activities of the club include sponsoring bus trips to away football and basketball games, the selling of season tickets, and the painting of various posters to be placed around school. A new activity of this year's Booster Club was selling weekly booster tags for all of the football and basketball games.

Leadership of Booster Club was assumed by Sandi VanHorn under the sponsorship of Mr. William Przbysz.

Monogram Club

The Monogram Club was formed to recognize the outstanding athletes of John Adams High School. To qualify for membership, a boy must earn a letter in one of the nine varsity sports at Adams: football, cross-country, tennis, basketball, swimming, wrestling, golf, baseball, or track. There are three Sports Awards Assemblies each year to honor those boys who have earned their letters. The members of the Monogram Club also vote for the most valuable player on each team. A trophy is then presented to this boy at the Sports Assembly.

Mr. Donald Coar is the sponsor of the organization and supervises activities throughout the year. Included are a soc-hop and the selling of sport schedules.

THINLIES TRIUMPH IN CITY MEET

Hail to coach Dale Gibson and his cross country team for winning their fourth straight South Bend City Cross-Country Championship. The Thinlies defeated Culver Military by a score of 19–44, to close their season with an 8–8 record. Senior Captain Bill Scott along with senior Bill Burke and junior Cubie Jones, all lettermen, were regular starters. B-team should not be overlooked, because it is these boys who keep the varsity on their toes. The up coming Harriers next fall will be letterman Cubie Jones, Phil Thompson, and Horis Russell. Congratulations on a job well-done.

The netters, under the direction of first year coach Eldon Fretz, closed their season with a 5–3 record. Senior letterman Rick Rutkowski was the Eagles' outstanding player, losing only once. He was backed by returning letterman Bob Armstrong, and Bruce Dickey, Greg Harrington, and John Norris. Although the B-Team had no inter-school engagements of their own, they lent their moral support to the varsity. Bruce Dickey, John Norris, and Dave Woo will be the three lettermen returning for contention next Fall.

WINNING SEASON

The 1965 season of the John Adams football team terminated with the sweetness of success, and there was no person who appreciated it more than Head Coach Jerry Planutis. His squad compiled an overall record of 5–3–1 and a conference mark of 3–2–1, which gave Adams a share of third place in the N. I. C. standings.

Led by senior co-captains Greg Burnside and Bruce Magrane, the Eagles tied with LaPorte; were defeated by St. Joe, Mishawaka, and Riley; and reigned victorious over Clay, Central, Goshen, Michigan City, and then number-one ranked Washington.

Among the many outstanding players on the squad were junior fullback Tommie Walls who placed second in conference scoring and senior end John Evans, who was named to the All-Conference squad.

Perplexed Coach Laurita questions the referee as Greg Burnside looks on.

DRIBBLERS COMPLETE

As Don Barnbrook began his first year at the head of the varsity basketball squad, there was some question as to who would make up the team. But as the squad was selected, a strong group of boys formed a tall, speedy, and aggressive nucleus. With a front line averaging 6 feet 4 inches and two ball hawking guards, the team compiled a 13–8 record and tied for third place in the conference. Included in the victories was a win over Michigan City, 1966 State Champs.

The squad was hurt throughout the season by injury. John Kaiser, a previous letterman, was hampered by a football injury, and Phil Williford missed the sectional with a virus. Other varsity members included Tom Taylor, Larry Wharton, Jim Richey, Charles Love, and Larry Williams.

STATE CHAMPIONSHIP

When Coach Don Coar came to Adams in 1959, he set his eye on the State Championship. In 1964 his team was a close second, and the team finished third in 1965, but this year the Seagles dethroned Columbus and came home with the State Championship.

Throughout the year they lived up to their promising ratings, compiling a 14–0 dual meet record and setting city, conference, and sectional records. After winning the City Meet and an overwhelming victory in the Conference Meet, the Seagles took the Sectional and qualified 14 men and two relay teams for the State Meet. Adams state winners, also recognized as All American, were senior diver Reid Lichtenfels and sophomore medley swimmer Mike Fitzgerald.

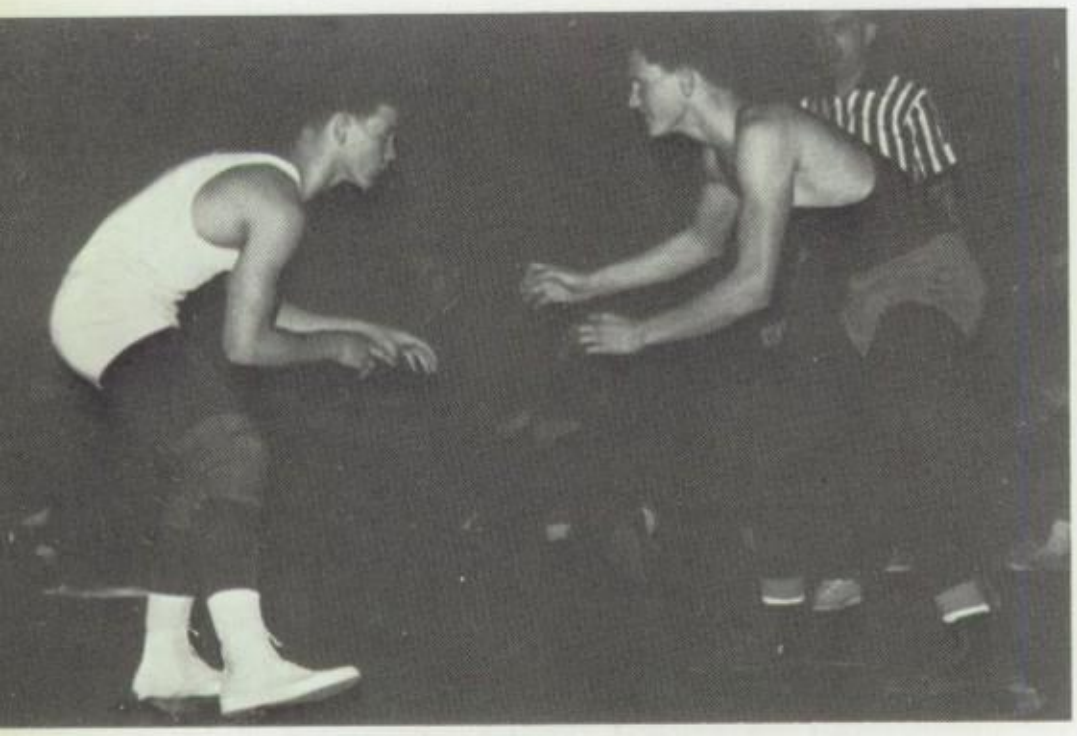
WRESTLERS PIN DOWN



John Adams' thirteenth year in wrestling was definitely not unlucky as Coach Morris Aronson put together the finest squad in the school's history. Not only did the team go undefeated with a 12–0 season record, but they also won the Conference, Sectional, Regional, and State titles.

Captain John Mosby truly led the team as he went undefeated throughout the season, won the Sectional and Regional, and sopped the State Championship. Bill Hill and Horace Russell also did honor to Adams, placing second in the state.

RETURNING LETTERMEN, L. to R.—J. Kaiser, C. Superczysnki, B. Storm, P. Perciful, G. Gibboney, D. MacGregor, and Coach Buczkowski.

Len Buchkowski has much to look forward to as he begins his first year as head coach of the Adams Baseball Team. The squad is enriched by seven lettermen, many of whom started last year, besides other experienced veterans. Pitching will be strengthened by returning lettermen Chuck Superczynski and Bob Storm at the mound. Backing them up are returning catchers Mick Spainhower and Larry Wilson. Other returning lettermen include John Kaiser, Perry Perciful, and Gary Gibboney.

The Eagles have an impressive schedule, playing each city team twice, climaxed by high hopes for the city championship.

VARSITY TRACK

This year's track team promises great things for Coach Clyde Remmo. Many of last year's lettermen have returned and formed the nucleus of a promising squad. Benny Nicks has returned for the dashes and relays. Other returning lettermen include Tommie Walls, dashes and relay, Bill Burke, and Bill Scott, distance, Scott Campbell, shot put, and Bob Roberts and Paul Burnore, pole vault. In his first year as Head Coach, Remmo will have Dave Hadaway as his assistant. The two will work with the over 100 strong varsity and reserve squad.

Coach Veryl Stamm begins his second year as golf coach with a team that is short on experience, especially in comparison with Adams' rough Northern Indiana Conference opponents. Chuck Welter, this year's captain, is the only returning letterman, and Chuck got most of his experience last year on the B–Team with other promising seniors Bill Spain and John Wallace, and junior Lee VanBuskirk.

IN MEMORIAM

KEN KNIGHT
August 23, 1948 to April 18, 1965

Ken Knight was an active member of the Class of 1966 until his death in a tragic hunting accident. As an outstanding baseball player Ken's sense of fair play and sportsmanship set an example for others. But this attitude also reflected his friendliness and sincerity, and these were the qualities that moved those who knew Ken to pay a meaningful tribute to him in describing him as "a fine young man with a great sense of humor and respected by all."
